

Oasesconservation.org - Terms and Conditions of Use

Terms & Conditions last revised July 13, 2007

This website www.oasesconservation.org ("our site" or "this site") is owned and operated by OASES. Please read these terms and conditions carefully before using our site. By using this site, you automatically agree to all of these terms of use. OASES may revise these terms from time to time. If you continue to use our site after we post changes to these terms and conditions, it will mean that you accept those changes.

Copyright and Use of Materials

OASES maintains this site for your personal information, education, and communication. All materials on our site, including but not limited to artwork, photographs, graphics, audio clips, video clips, text and trademarks, are the sole property of OASES or its licensors. Unless otherwise stated, all information contained on the site is © Copyright OASES

The exclusive rights to all materials on this site are protected by international laws of copyright, trademark and unfair competition. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute, modify, display, prepare derivative works based on, republish, transmit, repost or otherwise use the content of our site, except as necessary for your personal, non-commercial use, without prior written authorization from OASES. To request such permission, contact our office as noted on the website.

In no event may OASES trademarks, symbols, artwork or other visual or audio elements be reproduced separately from the textual content associated with them on the site.

If you download software from the site in order to use the materials as authorized above, the software, including any files, images, audio or video clips incorporated in or generated by the software, and data accompanying the software (collectively, "the software") is licensed to you by OASES.

OASES does not transfer the title to you. You own the medium on which the software is recorded, but OASES retains full title to the software, and all intellectual property rights therein. You may not redistribute, sell, decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble, or otherwise reduce the software to a human-perceivable form.

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy was created to inform you about the types of information gathered and disseminated on this website. Visitors to www.oasesconservation.org and all related sites are guaranteed privacy.

Measuring Audiences

The only information we collect from a normal web site visit is the name of your internet service provider, the browser and type of machine you are using, the pages you request and the date and time you request them and the web site that referred you to us,. We use this information to generate statistics and measure site activity to improve the usefulness of the site to our visitors.

IP Address Your IP (Internet Protocol) address is used to gather broad demographic information. OASES logs IP addresses and browser types for systems administration purposes. These logs are analyzed to constantly improve the value of the materials available on this website. Your IP address also helps us diagnose problems with our server and administer the Web site. IP addresses do not provide us with any identifiable personal information. This means your session will be tracked, but you will remain anonymous to us.

Cookies Like many other websites, we use cookies to better understand how our site is used, to make sure our information and dynamic content are served correctly, and to improve the performance of our site for our users, particularly the way search pages are delivered. OASES does not use cookies to retain personal information about our users, and we do not sell information about our traffic patterns. Aggregated site usage data may be provided to our sponsors and underwriters.

Submitting Personal Information OASES may collect email addresses and other personally identifiable data about visitors when such data is voluntarily submitted to www.oasesconservation.org or its related sites. We collect, use and disclose personal information only for purposes that a reasonable person would consider appropriate. Regularly, our members are given opportunities to choose how often and in what way they wish to hear from us. At any time, our supporters are able to opt out of receiving communication material.

As part of our commitment to ensuring the privacy of our visitors, OASES does not sell or exchange names or any other personally identifiable information about our online visitors and members. We may however provide personal information to third parties on a completely confidential basis to enable such third parties to perform certain tasks, such as maintain a membership database or send email alerts and/or newsletters, on our behalf. These third party providers are committed to protecting the privacy of our members and subscribers, and will utilize your information only to provide the services that we contract for.

Some of the functions of our site may also require registration of personal information. We use this information to make these functions more effective and provide participants with additional information about animal conservation and related welfare issues. We may share aggregate information about website usage and traffic patterns, stripped of any personally identifiable information, to third parties to comply with various reporting obligations and for business or marketing purposes. All such information is collected and stored in a manner appropriate to the nature of the data.

E-mail Updates OASES strongly observes anti-SPAM practices in its e-mail outreach programs. Each e-mail comes with an unsubscribe option and lists are never shared among or outside the organization.

eCards The information you submit when using OASES' eCards is not utilized for any other purposes.

Children's Guidelines For website users under 18, please be sure to obtain your parent's or guardian's permission before you send any information about yourself (your name, address, e-mail address, etc.) to us or anyone else over the Internet.

None of the websites covered by this policy knowingly collect identifiable personal information from children under age 13. If we discover that a person under the age of 13 has provided us with any personally identifiable information, we will delete that information from our systems. We are unable to reply to information requests from children under the age of 13, if so identified. A parent or guardian must initiate any requests for information from children under the age of 13 on their behalf.

We encourage parents to get involved with their children's online usage and to be aware of the activities in which they are participating.

Privacy Policy Changes OASES may amend this privacy policy from time to time. We maintain the option to change this Privacy Statement at any time by electronic notice posted on our website. Your continued use of our website after the date that such notices are posted will be deemed to be your agreement to the changed terms.

Security

Our website is operated by OASES for the benefit of our members and those interested in supporting our organization. It is free for use by individual web users. No registration is required.

OASES makes every effort to insure the secure collection and transmission of sensitive user information using industry accepted data collection and encryption methodologies.

The privacy of our supporter's personal information is never compromised. Safeguards are in place to ensure that all personal information is kept confidential and secure. Access is only given to employees who must use the personal information for the reason for which it was obtained.

All personal information such as e-mail addresses and financial information, collected on our website is knowingly and specifically supplied to us by the website user. This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control. Extensive data encryption and password protection is used to transfer and store data.

All information, including credit card information is encrypted using Secure Socket Layer (SSL) 128-bit encryption, currently the strongest export-grade encryption available. This means that any data sent from the user's computer to OASES is completely secure.

These measures have been put in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. However, your confidential use of this site cannot be guaranteed by the OASES. The OASES shall not be responsible for any harm that you or any person may suffer as the result of a breach of confidentiality with respect to information you transmitted to the site.
